CINCINNATI FLOWERS .- A Columbus cotemporary, in a paragraph laudatory of the nursery of Mr. Stelzig, of that city, is of opinion that the flowers raised by him are superior to those grown in this locality. He says:

We are told by one of the most successful cultivators of flowers in this city, and one of its old residents, that the fine flowers brought here from the Cincinnati nurseries are certain to disappoint the purchasers. They are too fine. Beautiful exceedingly now, they are exhausted by a premature effort. The June bloom is forced out in April by hot-house ap-The June pliances and stimulating manures, and when of the year to recover from the precocious and

THE United States Hotel, south-west corner of Walnut and Sixth streets, was purchased Monday by Mr. John T. Watson, who is busily engaged in remodeling that "institution," and will spare neither pains or expense to make it all the traveling public could desire. Mr. Watson is well known to the community at large.

THE BLACK BEAR .- Mr. Isaac Marchant, an old caterer for the public, has leased for a term of years the well-known Hotel stand on the south-east corner of Main and Eighth streets, and has erected that famous sign-which has slaughtered many-"The Black Bear." "Ye droviers" "Bar" in mind-"Ike" yet liveth.

THE long-mooted question whether or not an mbrella is property, was decided in the Police ourt yesterday morning. An individual was fined $1 and costs by Judge Lowe for stealing Association will be closed, for renovation, from the 7th to the 16th of May. one of those useful articles.

May-On Sunday the month that maidens love, for which they sigh while frowning March and weeping April with heavy steps go slowly toward the Past, took in her arms the crazy world and smiling in its face, about its browbound wreaths of violets, and daffodils, and daisies, and with her fragrant breath made cool its feverish cheek.

May comes to every heart in youth, and seems a form to clasp, a mind to love, a soul with which to sympathize forever. In after life, although it bear the olden shape, it still is but a myth. Later it again appears; but now it is the ghost of a departed hope, and thus remains-a Banquo for all time.

On Sunday we felt anew a thousand rosy kisses of our childhood on our lips, and in the soft, blue sky found tints and depths that reminded us of the tenderness with which a pair of loving eyes were wont to watch us through the hours, and our ideal May before our mental vision passed, and then we knew that in our dreams alone were happiness and rest. A hundred thousand Mays may smile without, but there can never be a joy if December be within.

Resolved, That the Superintendent of the Lick Run Lunatic Asylum be and is hereby instructed to notify the contractor for furnishing meat for that institution, that he must ing meat for that institution, that he must comply with his contract, or it will be declared forfeited forthwith, and some other person en-gaged to furnish meat of proper quality, and the present contractor held responsible for

A complaint from the Superintendent of that institution to the effect that meat had been delivered to it by the contractor which was unfit to be eaten, gave rise to the above resolution. We hope the evil will now be remedied.

WHY PERSONS SHOULD ADVERTISE THEIR WANTS IN THE DAILY PRESS .- A gentleman who advertised a House to Rent in the "Daily Press," one day last week, informed us that he had seventy-three applications for it on the day the notice appeared, and two hundred on the next day afterward; and that he considered the whole number the legitimate effort of a single notice through our columns. This fact speaks for itself. Ver-

About two o'clock yesterday morning, as the Sixth Ward Police were passing along Fifth street, between Mill and Stone, they heard a noise in the rear of a residence that attracted their suspicion. They went toward the place whence the noise proceeded, and as they ap proached, a man ran rapidly up the alley and disappeared. Upon examination they discovered that he had been endeavoring to force open a back shutter, with the evident intention of committing a burglary.

On the bulletin-board of the Mercantile Library Association is a notice, that a friend of the Association offers a complete set of the Historical Works of Wm. H. Prescott to that member who shall procure the largest number of new members between the present date and the first of December, 1859. The same gentleman proposes to donate the complete works of Capt. Marryatt to the member who shall procure the second largest number in the same time.

An Inserence.-The following is from the Omaha Nebraskian, a Democratic paper : The Volksblatt, a German paper, gave as a reason why the Germans should vote for the "American" candidate for Mayor of Cincinnati, the fear that unless they did so, the "Americans" might, in return, some day break their heads. Surely a "reign of terror" attends the progress of Know Nothingism.

AT a business meeting of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Exchange, yesterday, the names of twenty-four gentlemen were added to the list of members. The amendment to the bylaws, offered at a previous meeting, to change the hours of meeting from II A. M. to 2 P. M., was adopted.

AUCTION SALE OF REAL ESTATE.-The Fourth street property, No. 138, was sold yesterday by C. J. W. Smith, auctioneer, to Mesers. Skinner and Franklin, for $700 per front foot. The lot is 30 feet front by 150 feet deep. Terms onethird cash; balance in one, two and three years, with six per cent. interest.

THE work of demolition on the old iron foundery, at the corner of Vine and Center streets, slide on Mulberry street, at a cost not to is progressing rapidly, and in the course of a very few days the ground will be ready for the laying of the corner-stone of the new and splendid edifice to be there erected.

NIGHT before last Messrs. John H. Groesbeck, E. S. Padgett, M. E. Curwin, O. N. Bush, F. G. Huntington, Jacob Graff and S. J. Broadwell were elected Trustees of the Second Presbyterian Church.

THE daily annoyance of a promiscuous asemblage inside the bar at the Police Court has long been insufferable. Why do not the authorities devise some means of excluding all but those business compels to attend?

Two circus companies threaten a descent upon our goodly city during the present and coming week. We presume that flip-flaps and saw-dust will be at a premium among the boys for the next fortnight. EDWARD DE STIGER, who has been under

A fig for your "fashionable girls,"
With their velvets, and satins, and laces,
Their diamonds, and rubbes, and pearls,
And their iniliner-figures and faces;
They may shine at a party or ball,
Emblazoned with half they possess;
But give me, in place of them all,
My girl with a calico dress.

THE GIRL WITH THE CALICO DRESS

She is as plump as a partridge, and fair
As the rose in its earliest bloom;
Her teeth will with ivery compare,
And her breath with the clover perfume;
Her step is as free and as light
As the fawns whom the hunters hard press,
And her eye is as soft and as bright—
Ny girl with the calico dress.

Your dandles and foplings may sucer
At her simple and hodest attire;
But the charms she permits to appear
Would set a whole lecterg on fire.
She can dance, but she never allows
The hugging, the squeeze and carces;
She is saving all these for her spouse—
My girl with the calico dress.

She is cheerful, warm-hearted and true, And kind to her father and mother; She studies how much she can do For her sweet little sisters and brother. If you want a companion for life, To comfort, onliveh and bless, he is just the right sort for a wife-My girl with the called dress. LITTLE TRINGS.—Springs are little things, but they are the sources of large streams; a belm is a little thing, but mark how evenly it PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Dr. Gxo. W. Philairs, Cincinnati, Ohior-Having used several small bottles of your "Cough Byrop, ressonally and in my family, and having seen its effects on others, in numerous instances of severe cold and coughs, I most cheerfully recommend it asan in-allible remedy in all such cases. If this Syrup were in general use, I confidently believe a large majority of the colds, accompanies by coughs, that now term ante in Consumption, would be effectually arrested, in fact, I can see no necessity for any, who can obta in his remedy, being thus afflicted.

Respectfully yours,

From Hon. R. Storer, LL. D., Judge of the Superior Court of Cincinnati. From Hon. M. Storer, LE. D., Changer, Dec. 5, 1856.

Or G. W. PHILLIPS—Dear Sir: Your Cough Mixrure has been used with great success in my family. I belle wif to be a most safe and efficacious preparation for the cure of ordinary colds, as well as of chronic offections of the thront and lungs. Many of my neighbors, who have felt the good effects of this medcine, assure me that they regard it with great favor.

B. STORER.
